Blue Nile, Inc Alan Nathan Hoffman, 2011 Built on the premise of making engagement rings selection simpler, Blue Nile, Inc. (formerly known as Internet Diamonds, Inc.) has developed into the largest online retailer of diamond engagement rings. Unlike traditional jewelry retailers, Blue Nile operates completely store-front-free, without in-person consultation services. The business conducts all sales online or by phone and sales include both engagement (70%) and non-engagement (30%) categories. Therefore, the company focuses on perfecting its online shopping experience and providing extraordinary jewelry, useful guidance, and easy-to-understand jewelry education to help you find the jewelry that's perfect for your occasion. Blue Nile's vision is to educate its customer base so that customers can make an informed, confident decision no matter what event they are celebrating. It wants to make the entire diamond-buying-process easy and hassle-free. In addition, an important part of Blue Nile's vision, as CEO Diane Irvine said in a recent webinar with Kaihan Krippendorff, is for the company to be seen as the smart way to buy diamonds, while saving 20-40% more than one would in the typical jewelry store. Blue Nile is working to become the Tiffany for the next generation.

The Four-Ring Circle Angela H. Davis, 2007-10 The Four-Ring Circle is about a woman who sums her life up into four different metaphors. Looking inside herself, she finds that she continuously goes in circles through four different stages in her life, until she finally decides to take a little time out for herself. A little time turned into five years, but she finally learned how to be an individual, and how to want things that made her happy. She had finally had enough of everyone taking advantage, mistaking her kindness for weakness, her understanding for stupidity, taking her love for granted, and thinking that she would always forgive them for it. Once she set out to accomplish her goals, she was determined that nothing would stop her from finally giving her kids a stable home and a secure education, owning her own businesses and at last finding someone who was worthy of her love.

What Engagement Ring?! Martha Schroeder, 2012-07-01 The second my brother's four-carat diamond engagement ring was on your finger, you jilted him. Jake Singleton, attorney April Kennan had refused to even date Jake's snivelling brother let alone marry him! And now Jake insisted she return a ring she'd never been given, or he'd sue her for breach of promise to marry. So, there was only one thing for April to do Agree to marry Jake's brother and hope her bluff eventually led her down the aisle with the Singleton brother of her dreams!

A Case of Traumatic Brachial Neuralgia, Treated by Excision of the Cords of the Brachial Plexus (Classic Reprint) Henry Berton Sands,2018-10-21 Excerpt from A Case of Traumatic Brachial Neuralgia, Treated by Excision of the Cords of the Brachial Plexus All apparently went on well until about three weeks after the accident, at which time pain showed itself in the range of distribution of the ulnar nerve of the injured side. In a few days this pain became constant, and assumed an extreme character, extending to the thenar eminence, and affecting the minimus and annulus fingers severely, the medius moderately: the pain was a cutting and tearing one. From that period neuralgia has been the predominant symptom, depriving the patient of rest, exhausting him physically, and quite breaking down his moral tone. Meanwhile, the wound resulting from the amputation of the thumb had partially healed, but no union had taken place between the fractured bones. On the eleventh of August the patient was brought to this city, and was attended by Dr. Salvatore Caro. Under this gentleman's care, narcotics, morphine, chloral, chloroform, were judiciously administered, but the controlling effect of these drugs was very fugitive the moment that the patient awoke from artificially produced sleep, the neuralgic pain in the hand and fingers reappeared with extreme violence, and caused the sufferer to groan and shriek. The wound caused by amputating the thumb rapidly healed, and the burn likewise cicatrized in greater part. From day to day the pain seemed, however, to grow worse, and the patient's strength and -moral tone to fail. He became so irritable that the dressing of the wounds was a most difficult matter, inasmuch as he thought move ment of the shoulder and arm increased his suffering. On the 14th of August, Dr. Caro called Dr. Sands in consultation, and the other author of this report was allowed by the courtesy of these gentlemen to take part in the examination. The following memorandum is a copy of notes taken shortly after the consultation by Dr. Seguin. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
