Design Your Dream Wedding Rings Calla Gold, 2019-01-25 Your wedding rings are the most important pieces of jewelry you'll ever have. As a symbol of love and a pledge of faithfulness they hold much. Making them unique is a fun and creative process. Author Calla Gold believes there is a jewelry designer in each one of us and that the jeweler's job is to ask questions and help find that design inside of you. In this book you'll find examples of textures and details that add definition to your design, that evoke a feeling or vibe. You'll see how your lifestyle effects your ring design choices. You'll read stories like the way Marlo and Ben used family diamonds in their designs, how the right shaped center diamond helped Kaitlyn's short fingers look longer, and how a Rock and Roll drummer chose a special finish to make his fiancé's ring pop. Questions like these will be answered; what's the difference between platinum and white gold? What engraving techniques are out there and which ones would work for you? Is rose gold a safe choice with tiny prongs? What's the difference between the engagement ring and the wedding band? What are good gemstone alternatives to a diamond in the center? This book is your guide to creating your dream engagement and wedding rings.

The Ghost From The Grand Banks Arthur C. Clarke, 2011-09-29 A fast-moving mystery adventure by one of the world's greatest ever SF writers It is 2010. In two years' time it will be the centennial of the sinking of the Titanic. Two of the world's most powerful corporations race to raise the vessel but there are other powers at work, and chaos theory comes into play as plans progress - and six preserved bodies are found. This novel incorporates two of Arthur C. Clarke's passions - deep sea exploration and future technology - in a fast-moving tale of mystery and adventure. As operations proceed, the perfectly preserved body of a beautiful girl is found. She was not on the ship's passenger lists. The quest to uncover the secrets of the wreck and reclaim her becomes an obsession ... and for some, a fatal one.

The Deer Park Norman Mailer, 1997 Desert D'Or is the fashionable Californian resort where Hollywood's elite converge when they need a break. It is an incestuous hothouse of a town - a haven for manipulators, film stars, lovers, pimps, producers, whores, gamblers, scriptwriters and cheats. Into this nightmare world of depravity arrives Sergius O'Shaughnessy, recently discharged from the Air Force, traumatised by his war experiences and trying to write the Great American Novel. But O'Shaughnessy's burning ambition begins to lose its edge; lured by greed and ruled by weakness, he soon becomes disturbingly familiar with the dangerous life of slick compromises and sexual follies... The Deer Park is a powerful and vigorous satire on Hollywood's excesses and corruption. Combining a savage imagination with a heightened documentary realism, Mailer paints an uncompromising and terrifying portrait of a decadent society lost in moral confusion and despair.

Stewards of Memory Carol Borchert Cadou, 2018-11-27 Mount Vernon, despite its importance as the estate of George Washington, is subject to the same threats of time as any property and has required considerable resources and organization to endure as a historic site and house. This book provides a window into the broad scope of preservation work undertaken at Mount Vernon over the course of more than 160 years and places this work within the context of America's regional and national preservation efforts. It was at Mount Vernon, beginning with efforts in 1853, that the American tradition of historic preservation truly took hold. As the nation's oldest historic house museum, Mount Vernon offers a unique opportunity to chronicle preservation challenges and successes over time as well as to forecast those of the future. Stewards of Memory features essays by senior scholars who helped define American historic preservation in the twentieth and early twenty-first centuries, including Carl R. Lounsbury, George W. McDaniel, and Carter L. Hudgins. Their contributions—complemented by those of Scott E. Casper, Lydia Mattice Brandt, and Mount Vernon's own preservation scholars—offer insights into the changing nature of the field. The multifaceted story told here will be invaluable to students of historic preservation, historic site professionals, specialists in the preservation field, and any reader with an interest in American historic preservation and Mount Vernon. Support provided by the David Bruce Smith Book Fund and the Fred W. Smith National Library for the Study of George Washington at Mount Vernon.

Descent from Glory Paul C. Nagel, 1999 There has never been any doubt that the Adams family was America's first family in our politics and memory. This research-based and insightful book is a multigenerational biography of that family from the founder father John through the mordant writer Brooks.
