Diamonds Penny Proddow,Marion Fasel,1996 Bernard Williams is one of the most influential figures in recent ethical theory, where he has set a considerable part of the current agenda. In this collection, a distinguished international team of philosophers who have been stimulated by Williams' work give new responses to it. The topics covered include equality, consistency, comparisons between science and ethics, integrity, moral reasons, the moral system, and moral knowledge. Williams himself then provides a substantial reply, which in turn shows both the current directions of his own thought and also his present view of his earlier work (such as that on utilitarianism).

Without Any Stars Aeon B. Scott,2014-09-30 The world would be dark Without Any Stars. Dive deep into an adventure, where the world we have known has collapsed and a start of a brand new world begins. Star Mirror represents a new race that God mirrored from the last Earth inhabitants called humans and from the night skies constellations. For each constellation that falls under an animal, a curse, called the circle of life, the Star Mirrors gain their personalities and traits, but the heavens remain out of reach. Follow Vail as he struggles with the eternal conflict of light and darkness. Vail is a part of the near extinct Vulpecula clan, who was sent with the Lupus, to a far-off island to be safe from the crown. There, Vail meets two of his best friends who are being tempted by darkness. Will Vail overcome the darkness, or perhaps succumb to it? We all cast shadows, but shadows can only be cast with light. The difference between the two is how we balance both light and dark, which constantly fight deep within our hearts. Without Any Stars by Aeon B. Scott is a fantasy that deals with the deep darkness that lies true within our hearts.
