A reflection and a revolution, We are Circles offers humans of all ages a metaphor for choices as one part self love and one part relationship with the world around us. Readers will discover insights and considerations for the most important question of our time: How do I love myself and others? (Hint: We love through choices!) We all grapple with decisions in our daily life and wonder how to be centered and connected. Young and not so young people navigate micro and macro decisions at every moment. Choice by choice we make our way through relationships, global stress, and personal evolutions. Thus, there is no more important word than choice; it is the essence of freedom (a freedom defined by connection, not dichotomy). And our choices pool and gather in us and on the planet, shaping future choices! We are Circles grounds the dialogue about all decisions in simple shapes, elevating discussion and reflection to expand our awareness and commitment to choosing wisely for ourselves and others. This is the book to give to friends and strangers, and one to buy for the future of humanity. $2 from your purchase of the paperback edition will be shared with Room to Read to create a world free from illiteracy and gender inequality-read more about their mission online.

Circle of Love Monique Gray Smith,2024-03-06 Everyone is welcome in the circle. In this warmhearted book, we join Molly at the Intertribal Community Center, where she introduces us to people she knows and loves: her grandmother and her grandmother's wife, her uncles and their baby, her cousins, and her treasured friends. They dance, sing, garden, learn, pray, and eat together. And tonight, they come together for a feast! Molly shares with the reader how each person makes her feel--and reminds us that love is love. Through tender prose and radiant artwork, author Monique Gray Smith (Cree/Lakota) and illustrator Nicole Neidhardt (Diné) show how there is always room for others in our lives. Circle of Love is a story celebrating family, friends, community, and, most of all, love.
